Patent Office, U. S. Supreme and Circuit Courts: Special Attention Given to Interference Contests Before the U. S. Patent Office, Infringement Suits in the Different States, and All Litigation Pertaining to Inventions or Patents After an experience of fourteen years as a Patent Attorney, and two years practical experience in a Machine-Shop and Foundry - a rare qualification among Patent Attorneys - this pamphlet is submitted to Inventors and others interested in Patents, and business solicited from them for prosecution before the United States Patent Office and in the Courts. Careful and personal attention is given to all business committed to my charge. The employment of honest and experienced counsel in cases before the Patent Office is of such importance as to meet with official sanction and encouragement. The Rules of Practice revised February 1, 1883, contain the following: As the value of patents depends largely upon the careful preparation of the specifications and claims, the assistance of competent counsel will, in most cases, be of advantage to the applicant; but the value of their services will be proportionate to their skill and honesty, and too much care cannot be exercised in their selection, c.
